

ENGLISH IN DEVON

Exmouth – enjoy this vivid student town.

The East Devon Coast from Exmouth to Dorset has been officially ranked as one of the natural wonders of the world.

The ancient coastline between Orcombe Point at Exmouth to Dorset invites the visitor to discover 185 million years of earth's history. Exmouth, Devon's oldest seaside resort and largest town in East Devon, is a lively British town located at the mouth of the renowned Exe Estuary, which is abundant with bird life, brightly coloured sailing craft and splendid panoramic views. The promenade stretches along Exmouth's golden sandy beach for over 2 miles. This leads to the start of the internationally important coastline designated as a World Heritage Site – alongside the Great Barrier Reef and the Grand Canyon! There are beautiful floral displays throughout Exmouth's well-equipped centre, making it the ideal place to relax and shop. Exmouth also offers a variety of seaside attractions and the well renowned watersports facilities, many friendly shopping streets, as well as smaller side streets that offer something different and are lovely to browse, all close to the main shopping areas and the town centre. When it comes to eating out you are spoilt for choice as Exmouth has a great range of restaurants, pubs and cafés.

Exmouth is also a convenient base for exploring other places of interest in the South West, such as the beautiful Roman City of Exeter, the Naval City of Plymouth, famous for the National Marine Aquarium and for being the departure site of the Pilgrim Fathers.
