We have the perfect location for all lovers of Italian culture and language

Located 120 kilometres inland from Italy's west coast and 200 kilometres northwest of Rome, Florence boasts a proud history of art and archi-tecture, unsurpassed elsewhere in Europe, it is the true cradle of the Renaissance. Although an absolutely breathtaking city, you will be transported back into what it would have been like to live in a prospering and competitive Renaissance city. Florence has so much to offer to the international visitor that every day can be specked with new cultural experiences. The streets of Florence radiate the charm of Italian culture. Students from all around discover the 'Flower' (Florence or Florentia in Italian/Latin). Numerous museums and palaces, as well as private galleries, bars, cafes, and even clubs and discos exude a deep-rooted sense of beauty and design.

Anyone who comes here to study and is exposed to all of Florence's attractions, will simply learn of the desire to speak the language, to communicate with the Florentine people and to indulge in this rich culture. Whether it is something modern, classical, ancient, or rustic, we know that if it comes from Florence, then it is "in" and has style. The city is a must for trendsetters, furniture designers, craftsmen, artists, architects and fashion designers. This is perhaps a result of the interaction between tradesmen from many countries who not only brought their goods but introduced their cultures as well.

The Renaissance influenced Florence´s mentality and left its fingerprints on the unique language. Home of Dante, Machiavelli, Michelangelo, Da Vinci, and the Medici, Florence is overwhelming with its wealth and pride, a most enticing city.
