
Referencje

In the Sprachcaffe school not only have I learnt and improved my English, I have met different people from all over the world.

The students, teachers and the staff, all of them have become really good friends.

Both the teachers and the staff are always willing to help and do something about the student's questions and demands.

I really liked this experience; I would definitely do it again.